Joint Research Projects

Instructions for Individual Countries (Exemption) of 2020 Application Guidelines

<FRANCE: Inria> “AYAME Program”

- Based on an agreement with Inria, JSPS will cover the costs of the Japanese team, and Inria will cover the costs of the French team.

- The “AYAME Program” aims to support joint research projects having a balanced mobility scheme and involving scientists from Japan and France in the field of information and communication science and technology.

- The counterpart French team leaders are to submit their applications to Inria by 9 October 2019. Applications submitted by one side only will not be accepted. Japanese/French team leaders should, therefore, be sure that their counterpart submits a matching application.

For detailed information, please access:
http://www.inria.fr/en/research/international-mobility/associate-teams/call-for-projects

- Please note that the call will be launched by Inria on 18 July 2019.

- The counterpart French team leaders must be researchers affiliated with Inria.

- Items (1) and (2) in the Word file part of the application form must be filled out in English.
